Commercial Associates Partners with INPACT
as their Sydney Representative

Commercial Associates, a leading accounting firm based in Sydney's CBD, and branches in Parramatta and Penrith, has partnered with Inpact Asia Pacific. Commercial Associates is a full service professional services group, with a team of 60 trained specialists.

INPACT is the world's 17th largest international association of accounting firms, with over 150 independent member firms in some 232 locations in more than 60 countries. To enhance their professional services, Commercial Associates joined as a member of INPACT Asia Pacific to tap in to their network platform enabling them to provide global services to their clients.

INPACT member firms have been carefully selected in each local market to provide clients with local professional advice they can rely on. By working together within the global framework provided by the alliance, member firms can provide integrated services in accountancy, tax, audit, corporate finance, financial planning and management, consulting, and business restructuring and insolvency.

"In this day and age actionable advice can't stop at the border! As a large boutique advisory firm, more and more of our exclusive clientele are doing business all over the world; and by joining Inpact so will we", said Fleming Stojanovski, Group CEO CAAA, "This is an important milestone in our journey to become the premier advisors to Private Clients in Sydney", he added of the partnership.

Commercial Associates will be the Sydney representative for INPACT, aligning business relationships in the Asia Pacific.
