CAAA bolsters its Audit division appointing well know Sydney Auditor Ruzbeh Desai Director of its Audit Practice

Commercial Associates (CAAA) are delighted to announce their recent merger with C S A Partners Audit and Assurance. C S A have merged into CAAA's existing Audit division to enable them to move forward as CAAA Audit & Assurance, focusing on both private and public company Audits.

“For too long now the large private companies of Australia have been over charged and underserved by the top end of town, the addition of CSA to our group, gives CAAA more capacity to provide a compelling alternative to those companies that have had enough” Said Fleming Stojanovski, Chief Executive Officer, CAAA.

The driving force behind the merger of the two firms was an unprecedented growth in the large private company business and a commonality of values, principles and standards. The CSA brand continues but will be refocused as a specialist SMSF audit business. Ruzbeh Desai will head up both divisions.

“The merger of C S A Professionals with Commercial Associates has been an excellent strategy of drawing upon the strengths of the two firms to maximize their business opportunities while addressing their weaknesses to minimize their business threats” Said Ruzbeh.

“Adding such a well know and well regarded director as Ruzbeh to the firm is quite a victory, our team and clients are delighted to be working with him” Said Fleming Stojanovski, CEO CAAA.
